

Good afternoon,

I would like to express my objection to the above-referenced bills that seek to broaden Connecticut's absentee ballot qualifications. I believe the existing rules (pre-Covid) have served our state well and strike a fair balance between voter access and election security. With Covid thankfully in decline, there is no emergency to warrant this action.

Neil W. Roberts
Burlington, CT